

2016 MNAC Art Workshop

The MNAC Fall Autumn Teen Workshop was held in the Nebraska 4-H building at the Nebraska Forest on Wednesday, September 14. Kyra Kennedy, Brooklyn Leach, Bryan Zutavern, Dylan Lister, Hannah Christie, and Maddie Stump attended the workshop. The work sessions were in the morning and afternoon and each student got to pick out two sessions to attend. The sessions included: clay mask, watercolor, acrylic painting, and photography. The instructors were professional artists from different parts of central Nebraska. Paul Loomer taught the clay mask section and is from Broken Bow. Laron McGinn is from Dunning and shared his painting techniques. Burwell resident, Kelly Carr, was the photography instructor and Pat Schemmer, from Valentine, worked with the participants in watercolor. Student's ended up enjoying the day and brought back some really good projects and useful tips.
